The Purple warriors found themselves late in the second period and rallied as valorously that they more than held their own during the rest of the game. Most of the offensive was from Olimbant to Gerhardt. As Gerhardt was about to receive the halt only Note Dame's 41 yard mark Haujan ghook him up with terrific force. It was one of the severest cases of roughing the elarm clock went off and Rutgers was one of the severest cases of roughing the receiver of a pass seen in this section.
